

A Guide for Health Care Professionals

Focus on Living Centre

Supporting patients to live well

Part of St Oswald's Hospice DAY SERVICES

What happens at the Focus on Living Centre?

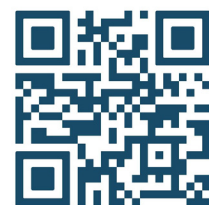

- ✓ personalised, holistic, rehabilitative approach to help patients to live well with their condition for as long as possible
- ✓ focus on overall wellbeing – physical health, mental health, social and emotional/spiritual needs
- ✓ delivered by holistic care and therapeutic practitioners, plus medical experts
- ✓ advice, support and information to help patients self-manage and self-care

Who can be referred?

- ✓ adult patients from Newcastle, Northumberland, North Tyneside and Gateshead
- ✓ must be living with a progressive, life-limiting condition considered to be palliative (i.e. non-curative) – from as soon as diagnosed to those living with a palliative diagnosis for months/years
